Hajduch Named Top SJC Senior; Sen. Bayh Addresses Graduates

Saint Joseph's 82nd annual commencement exercises opened June 19 with Alumni Association president James Madden presenting that group's annual senior-of-the-year award to Patricia Hajduch, accounting major from Whiting, Ind.

"The true test of our civil liberties lies not in our ability to defend the rights of those with whom we agree, but the rights of those with whom we disagree," Senator Birch

Class of 1977 in helping them enter their respective careers.

"Hopefully, Saint Joseph's has given us the foundation to go on from here and accomplish our many varied dreams and goals," she said. "Now in a very real sense, we are starting all over again, just like we did when we first came here four years ago. If we stand firm in our convictions, we will have completed one long step toward success in the rest of our lives."

Bayh of Indiana told 214 Saint Joseph's College graduates.

Senator Bayh warned that basic freedoms guaranteed by the Bill of Rights have faced frequent and serious challenges, then stressed that vigilance by each citizen in speaking out against encroachments on these rights is the best assurance that they will remain "strong and sacrosanct."

Senator Bayh said it is not safe to presume that freedoms listed in the Bill of Rights will be automatically preserved just because they are written there.

"Please do not believe that past mistakes, past challenges to our basic freedoms cannot occur again; don't say that it can't happen here, because it has before and it can happen again," he continued. "Too often we have had a fear of the unorthodox and problems in relations with people who look or think differently than we do."

"History makes it clear that very few great nations have survived much more than 200 years, but I refuse to agree with prophets of doom who would claim the United States has just about run its course," the senator added. "Our great strength lies in our freedoms and our willingness and readiness to stand up and defend them. We must avoid seeking nothing more than a freedom from responsibility."

The greatest measuring stick of a people's desire to maintain their freedom is their ability to object to the efforts of those who would impose their wills upon them, he noted.

"When the record of our time is written, let it say that we did object to anything and everything except an all-out effort to finish the unfinished business of America," Senator Bayh concluded. "Let the record show that we succeeded in making it right."

Following Senator Bayh's address, he was presented with an honorary doctor of laws degree, while Father Thomas Ryan of Saint Joseph's received an honorary doctor of letters degree.

Miss Hajduch also delivered the valedictory address, in which she stressed the contributions Saint Joseph's has made to the

Bro. Henry Dedicates Self To Saint Joseph's

Long hours of hard work has been a way of life for Brother Henry Luke at Saint Joseph's College, and it's one of several reasons why this personable gentleman has won so much respect and so many friends on the campus during the past 47 years.

A native of Wooster, Ohio, Brother Henry first heard of Saint Joseph's through a missionary priest, Fr. Alex Schuette, who served Wooster's Immaculate Conception Church there in the early 1900's. Brother Henry first entered the novitiate at Burkettsville, Ohio, during 1917-20, then studied at Saint Charles Seminary in Charthagna, Ohio, during 1920-29.

In 1929, Brother Henry came to Saint Joseph's and he's been here ever since. His first assignment was the cow barn, a large white wood structure that stood roughly where Halleck Center is now located.

Now 77 years of age, Brother Henry was joined in his barn chores by two hired workmen, Fred Shuster and Eddie Effinger.

Since 1965, Brother Henry has assisted in campus maintenance.

"I want to keep on working as long as I can, because I am very well satisfied and happy with being part of this college community," he says. "Really, there isn't a thing I'd want that isn't already here and I've been treated very well by everyone here."

Maybe this is because Brother Henry, through his personal spirit of selfless dedication to the college, has also treated the campus and its people very well.

New Alumni Board Members Chosen; Dale Fallat '66 Elected To Head Group

Scholarship Fund Established By Benno M. Scheidler Estate

Saint Joseph's College has received $200,000 from the estate of the late Benno M. Scheidler at Attica, Ind., to establish a scholarship fund at the college.

The Scheidler Scholarship Fund, to carry the names of Benno M. and Cecilia M. Scheidler, will be administered by the regular scholarship committee of the college and grants will be restricted to Indiana students.

A check for $200,000 has been presented to college president Father Charles Banet by Attica attorney Keith Barnhart, acting on behalf of John Rumsas, executor of the Scheidler estate.

During the check presentation, Barnhart also announced that a distribution of residual funds in the Scheidler estate will be made at a later date, and Saint Joseph's share in that residual portion will also be placed in the scholarship fund.

"The Scheidler family has been a long-time supporter of Saint Joseph's, and its ongoing assistance and friendship means a great deal to all of us at the college," Father Banet says. "Benno Scheidler's brother Albin served as a priest here for 35 years, and Benno provided us with the major portion of funds for our recent chapel renovation. Such support, such loyalty is simply outstanding."

Benno Scheidler died in November, 1976.

Football Pumas Launch 1977 Season Sept. 3 Against Wisconsin-Eau Claire

What awaits the Saint Joseph's College football Pumas during the 1977 football season? The future, as always, remains uncertain. Success, as always, must be earned. When your program is improving and showing added signs of strength as is SJC's, the opposition will make itself that much tougher.

What is certain is the Puma coaches and players will meet the challenge with energy, enthusiasm, experience, ability, and the ambition to make 1977 THE YEAR OF THE PUMAS!!

Bill Jennings, coach-of-the-year in the Indiana Collegiate Conference in 1970, 1971, and 1976, steers his gridders into the 1977 campaign with hopes of improving upon last season's 6-3 overall record and 4-1 conference record, plus repeating as I.C.C. CHAMPS, a position they held with Evansville in 1976.

"I think with the lettermen we have coming back, with the young people on our team, and the incoming junior college transfers and high school recruits, the 1977 squad has the potential to be an excellent team," Jennings says. "We need to repeat the fine leadership qualities that were given to us by our graduating seniors. If we can maintain this leadership and fill some positions, we will be on our way. There are many potential disruptions that can sidetrack a successful season. However, going into camp, we as a staff and our players are very positive about achieving our goals for 1977. It's time to get to work."

The Saint Joseph's College football Pumas, ICC co-champs in '76, will play a nine-game schedule in 1977, including four games in the Indiana Collegiate Conference and a season opener with a first-time-ever foe, Wisconsin-Eau Claire.

The Sept. 3 opening date is the earliest opener in recent college history and the schedule includes other non-conference battles with Olivet (Mich.), Franklin, Wabash and DePauw.

Fast-paced action like this can again be expected when Saint Joseph's football team takes the field this fall. Here Little All-American candidate Mike Palmore leaps in the end zone for a pass against Indiana Central.

The schedule:

- Sept. 3 at Wisconsin-Eau Claire
(Division I NAIA foe, member of Wisconsin University League)
- Sept. 10 Olivet (Mich.)
(Member of tough Michigan Inter-collegiate Athletic Conference)
- Oct. 1 Indiana Central*
(Won 6, Lost 4 in 1976)
- Oct. 8 at Franklin (Ind.)
(Won 6, Lost 3 in 1976)
- Oct. 15 at Butler*
(Won 6, Lost 4 in 1976)
- Oct. 22 Wabash (Homecoming)
(Won 7, Lost 3 in 1976)
- Oct. 29 at DePauw
(Guided by new coach Bob Bergman)
- Nov. 5 Evansville*
(ICC Co-Champion in 1976)
- Nov. 12 at Valparaiso*
(Traditional season-ending rival)

Fun Weekend Brings Alumni 'Back Home'

Saint Joseph's Alumni Association held its first annual "Fun Weekend" on July 22-24. Twelve couples and families numbering 40 persons participated in the festivities held on campus.

"We encouraged alumni to simply bring themselves, their families, their golf clubs, tennis racquets and swim suits and be prepared to spend a nice, relaxing weekend," explains Jerry Lasko, alumni director.

The "Fun Weekend" offered cookouts, swimming, tennis, golf, fishing, hiking, camping and related activities and a free nursery service Saturday morning. In addition, visiting families were invited to a faculty-college, staff employee picnic which was held at Lake Banet, plus a mass offered by Fr. Charles Banet, president of SJC, in the newly-renovated college chapel.

An outdoor picnic at Lake Banet was one of the highlights of alumni fun weekend July 22-24 on Saint Joseph's campus. In the background are Alumni Board officer Ken Ahler, Alumni Association director Jerry Lasko and college President Father Charles Banet.

Dear Saint Joe Alumni and Alumnae,

I hope this letter finds you and your families enjoying the remaining days of summer. I am pleased to report that your Alumni Board and officers have had a productive summer preparing for this year's alumni program and activities. Our combined summer board meeting and alumni fun weekend truly allowed us to mix business with pleasure, and the hospitality extended to all of us in attendance by our director, Jerry Lasko, and many others was most appreciated.

This summer board meeting meant the end of the term of office of president Jim Madden and his officers, along with certain board members. Their absence will be strongly felt; however, they know better than anyone the value and importance of keeping the Alumni Board fluid to allow, over the years, the participation of as many fellow alumni as possible.

Much work has already been done by Mike Smith and his committee to assure a repeat of last year's Homecoming success, and then some. Homecoming is a big job by anyone's standards, and the personal effort and sacrifice of alumni, students and college staff would be hard to overstate.

If your Alumni Board does nothing else this year, I promise you it will make continued progress in the area of alumni chapter development and alumni relations. We realize that the many fine men and women who compose the alumni of our college have greatly contributed to its past successes and will be needed for its future ones. In this regard, it's our job to make sure that Saint Joe's keeps in close touch with you so that you can be informed of its activities and directions and have direct input into these and other matters. Saint Joe's truly needs you. Sure, sometimes it needs your financial support, but that's only a part of it.

Also needed are your counsel and advice, your imagination, your talents, your contact with others who can help, your cultivation of prospective students, and whatever else you can provide a courageous, and sometimes hard-pressed, small college in Indiana. Since it's just possible that a part of what you are today can be attributed to your Saint Joe years, I ask you to seriously consider what you might be able to do to help your college move ahead with its mission.

I look forward to seeing many of you at Homecoming. If you haven't been back to campus for a while, do it this year. You've been missed.

Sincerely,

Dale W. Fallat
